North Peace Energy appoints Chief Financial Officer

Calgary, Alberta, February 26, 2007 – North Peace Energy Corp is pleased to announce the appointment of James Glessing as Chief Financial Officer and Vice President Finance, effective March 12, 2007.

A Chartered Accountant, Mr. Glessing has a number of years of progressively senior experience in the financial sector within the Oil & Gas industry. His previous experience includes varying financial roles with Deloitte & Touche and Canadian Natural Resources. Mr. Glessing was controller at BlackRock Ventures which was acquired by Shell Canada in 2006. At Shell Canada, he facilitated BlackRock's successful financial integration and most recently, he served as a Finance Analyst in the Treasury Department.

As North Peace's CFO and Vice President Finance, Mr. Glessing will be a key member of North Peace's executive team and will participate in overall corporate strategic planning.

"With his background working with public Canadian energy companies and his diverse financial skill set, James is a valuable asset to the North Peace team," Louis Dufresne, CEO said. "We look forward to his contributions as North Peace continues to grow and progress."
